DESCRIPTION

The purpose of Beyond the Front Row is to bring students together to promote awareness of fashion through community service and special events. Members will be able to create a direct link into the internal lattice of the fashion industry, thus, giving the opportunity to further one's career through knowledge and real-world experience.

BENEFITS

Through Beyond the Front Row, you have the opportunity to become part of a growing network of current students, alumni, and industry professionals!

We regularly visit renowned companies such as Madewell, take part in NY Fashion Week, learn from amazing guest speakers such as Jean Paul Gaultiers and host our very own Iconic Gala each semester.

COST

Membership dues are $10.00. Come join us anytime.

LOCATION

Meeting time/day will be announced for Spring Semester. Please visit us on Facebook for updates.
